The Quit India Movement, also known as "Bharat Chhodo Andolan", was a mass protest against British rule, demanding an end to British colonial presence in India. The movement was launched on August 8, 1942, at the Bombay session of the All India Congress Committee. Mahatma Gandhi delivered his iconic "Do or Die" speech at the Gowalia Tank Maidan (now August Kranti Maidan) in Mumbai, urging Indians to participate in the non-violent movement.
